

Good
Goods

THE HOMER FITTS CO.

164-166 North Main Street, Barre, Vermont.

Right
Prices

The Homer Fitts Company Preparations

We notice a growing tendency each year towards the giving of sensible Christmas gifts. For this reason we have made extensive preparations, and are better prepared than ever to meet the demand for goods which have made this store famous. What could be more acceptable than a fine set of Furs or Fur Coat? What more useful than one half dozen pairs of Stockings? What more attractive than a handsome Waist? And so we might keep on enumerating other articles equally as desirable in Underwear, Handkerchiefs, Belts, Neckwear, etc. You know this store; you know its reputation for value giving. See that the Homer Fitts Company's name is on your shopping list.

Aprons

We have the daintiest showing of Tea Aprons in plain and figured lawns and dotted muslin from 15c up to the best. Look our line over

Neckwear

Always up to date. Look at our Fancy Collars and Ties in fancy boxes.

Gilberta Flounces

Are just what every woman wants. Off with the old flounce, on with the new. (Linen department)

Hosiery

"Wayne Knit" leads them all. We are giving special attention to this department and what is more acceptable gift than a good pair of Hosiery, 15c pair to $1.50 pair.

Corset Covers

We make a specialty of Corset Covers at 50c each. It is generally considered that we show the prettiest assortment at this price.

The Green Mountain State Souvenir Playing Cards

53 views of especial natural and historic interest. Per pack, 50c.

Gloves

A pair of Gloves makes a fine present. No questioning the style and quality when they come from here.

Furs

How about your Fur Muff or Scarf? Remember Fine Furs From Fitts.

Remember our Special Sale now on.

Keep an eye on this space every day.

Remember

When trading at our store you can, without going out doors, step right into an up-to-date, first-class Shoe Department, where you will find a very large variety of Ladies', Girls', Boys' and Children's Footwear of every description, also the famous Shawmut Rubbers which are the BEST WEARING RUBBERS MADE. Step in and see our Shoe Department whether you purchase or not.

The Homer Fitts Company

Indian Moccasins

Make an Ideal Xmas Gift

They were really made by the Indians for the comfort of the Pale Faces.

Give your friends a pair of these Comforters and you will be giving the best in Shoedom.

Prices from 60c to $2.00 per pair

Barre Shoe Company

Cash Shoe Store

AT THE PAVILION TODAY

Another classy show headed by a couple of real vaudeville acts with Keith trade marks. Look who's here—none other than

Mr. and Mrs. Danny Mann

Presenting their beautiful pastorial playlet, "Mandy Hawkins," the prettiest act in vaudeville. Beautiful electrical effects.

"Mandy Hawkins" is the gem of vaudeville.—David Belasco.

"As sweet as the new mown hay"—Allan Dale.

Mr. C. W. Littlefield

The American mimic. Different from any act ever seen in Barre. Characters, oddities, peculiarities.

BUMPUS ON AVIATION

A Vitaphone comedy.

AN UNEXPECTED REWARD

A pretty story with heart interest.

Two Waifs and Astray

Another Vitaphone drama.

ADMISSION 10 CENTS

CHILDREN 5 CENTS

WE ANNOUNCE the removal of our store on Monday, December 5th, to Rooms 11 and 12, Bolster Block, No 116 Main Street, directly over our present location.

We shall continue to sell High Grade Teas and Coffees at half what the same grade can be bought for elsewhere.

We thank our customers for their liberal patronage and trust for a continuance of the same in our new quarters.

Direct Importing Co.

Rooms 11 and 12

BOLSTER BLOCK

116 NORTH MAIN STREET

THE BARRE DAILY TIMES

MONDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1910.

Weather Prediction.

Snow to-night or Tuesday; warmer, southeast winds, increasing to northeast. Storm warning order, Boston to Jacksonville.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

It's coming, and coming soon. Our Christmas furs are now in. Perry's. Sale begins this evening at Vaughan's. Abbott's overstocked sale this week. Vermont souvenir playing cards at Fitts.

Chamois vests, the very best, at Davis', the druggist.

Sale of children's coats at The Vaughan Store.

B. G. Webster of Cabot passed Sunday with friends here.

See Mrs. Wiggs and the cabbage patch. Congregational vestry.

Sale begins this evening; read our advertisement. Vaughan's.

A great variety of lace collars and jabots just arrived at Perry's.

Charles Albisetti of 20 Foster street is confined to the house by illness.

Chamois vests to protect your chest, the very best, at Davis', the druggist.

Ladies, save time and money; bargain at domestic booth, Congregational vestry.

William Reynolds went to Boston yesterday for a few weeks' visit with friends.

J. W. Vaughan will leave the city to-night on a short business trip to Boston.

Wanted—To buy some second-hand show cases. Apply at Aqua Pura building, Granite street.

Mrs. Luther Stanhope returned to-day to her home in Brimston, N. Y., after spending a week with relatives in the city.

Riley's orchestra will furnish music for dancing at the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, December 8, 9 and 10, Howland hall.

Matt Haley returned this morning, after a prolonged stay in Michigan on business, during which he visited Manatee and Grand Rapids.

F. Brunell and A. Bottini will leave to-morrow for New York, where they will take passage for Italy to spend the winter at their former homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Spence returned Saturday to their home in Hartford, Conn., after passing ten days with friends in this city and vicinity.

Dainty jabots for well-dressed ladies, assortment of fancy bags, toilet articles and embroidered linen at sale, December 6 and 7, at Congregational vestry.

The students of Miss Hamilton's elocution class at Montpelier seminary will present the play, "A Time of His Life," at the chapel on Friday evening of this week.

William Bailey, who has been confined to his home on Eastern avenue by illness for the past two weeks, was able to resume his duties in Ladd's store this morning.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, December 8, 9 and 10, Howland hall. A fine program will be furnished each evening. Dancing from 9 to 12.

Miss Mary A. Corcoran, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Michael Corcoran, went to the Fanny Allen hospital at Burlington yesterday for an operation for appendicitis.

Weather strip for doors and windows—best in the world, all wood, absolutely air tight, lasts a lifetime. Send postal. Herbert A. Rugg, sale agent, 8 Hall street.

A nice line of useful and fancy articles for sale at the L. C. G. sale, just the time to prepare for Christmas. Remember the dates, December 8, 9 and 10, Howland hall.

The most complete line of Christmas post cards, booklets, gift books, place cards, calendar pads, seals, etc., to be found in the city is now displayed at Kenyon & Co's Cash Bargain Store.

Hugh H. Carpenter, who has been acting as private secretary for Congressman Frank Plimley at Northfield for the past month, returned to his home in this city Saturday and resumed his work in the office of State's Attorney J. Ward Carter.

"The Red Girl and the Child" at the Dreamland theatre to-day is one of the most sensational and stirring pictures and full of action ever exhibited in Barre. This picture shows one of the most daring steps a cowboy will take to protect an Indian girl he loves. Come and see to convince yourself.

The answer to the question propounded by "Dice" in a letter to The Times to-day is that the man with a three would not be counted in either first or second place, but that the two places would go to the men who were tied originally for first, they taking position in the order of the play-off of the tie.

Sunday arrivals at the hotel Otis follow: G. J. Parker, Burlington; F. A. Walker, Hardwick; R. C. McDonald, Plattsburg, N. Y.; C. H. Harvey, Lyndonville; Albert Jennings, Bangor, Me.; G. A. Levy, Chelsea; C. W. Littlefield, New York City; G. D. P. Putnam, Worcester, Mass.; W. B. Murray, Quincy, Mass.; J. H. Murdoch, Randolph; J. L. Barnes, Albany, N. Y.; F. A. Spaulding, Plattsburg, N. Y.; George Wallace, New York City; A. D. Melver, Vershire; W. H. Holbrook, Newport.

"Mandy Hawkins" stood out like a fine etching in the merry-go-round of vaudeville. The above was the criticism of David Belasco, after witnessing the beautiful playlet, played by Mr. and Mrs. Danny Mann for seven consecutive weeks at Young's Million Dollar pier, Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Mann are billed to appear at the Pavilion in "Mandy Hawkins" for three days, commencing to-day. Considering the splendid reputation connected with the above act, the management of the Pavilion is deserving of special praise for securing such a meritorious attraction.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

TALK OF THE TOWN.

B. Marshall went to Boston yesterday on a business trip.

Aprons, large, medium and small sizes. Prices to suit the times. Sale December 6 and 7, Congregational vestry.

The Hedding male chorus is requested to meet Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the home of W. H. Goodfellow.

Don't forget THE chicken-pie supper of the season, Congregational vestry Wednesday evening. Price only 25 cents.

Alderman and Mrs. James Ewen returned Saturday evening from a two weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Gilman of Claremont, N. H.

Four of the live poultry fanciers of this city shipped some of their best blooded stock to the Connecticut Valley Poultry association show at Brattleboro to-day. They were R. S. Currier, Alderman William Brown, C. W. McMillan, Jr., and J. P. Corskie.

See Mrs. Wiggs and the cabbage patch. Congregational vestry.

Sale begins this evening; read our advertisement. Vaughan's.

A great variety of lace collars and jabots just arrived at Perry's.

Charles Albisetti of 20 Foster street is confined to the house by illness.

Chamois vests to protect your chest, the very best, at Davis', the druggist.

Ladies, save time and money; bargain at domestic booth, Congregational vestry.

William Reynolds went to Boston yesterday for a few weeks' visit with friends.

J. W. Vaughan will leave the city to-night on a short business trip to Boston.

Wanted—To buy some second-hand show cases. Apply at Aqua Pura building, Granite street.

Mrs. Luther Stanhope returned to-day to her home in Brimston, N. Y., after spending a week with relatives in the city.

Riley's orchestra will furnish music for dancing at the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, December 8, 9 and 10, Howland hall.

Matt Haley returned this morning, after a prolonged stay in Michigan on business, during which he visited Manatee and Grand Rapids.

F. Brunell and A. Bottini will leave to-morrow for New York, where they will take passage for Italy to spend the winter at their former homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Spence returned Saturday to their home in Hartford, Conn., after passing ten days with friends in this city and vicinity.

Dainty jabots for well-dressed ladies, assortment of fancy bags, toilet articles and embroidered linen at sale, December 6 and 7, at Congregational vestry.

The students of Miss Hamilton's elocution class at Montpelier seminary will present the play, "A Time of His Life," at the chapel on Friday evening of this week.

William Bailey, who has been confined to his home on Eastern avenue by illness for the past two weeks, was able to resume his duties in Ladd's store this morning.

Remember the date of the Ladies of Clan Gordon fair, December 8, 9 and 10, Howland hall. A fine program will be furnished each evening. Dancing from 9 to 12.

Miss Mary A. Corcoran, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Michael Corcoran, went to the Fanny Allen hospital at Burlington yesterday for an operation for appendicitis.

Weather strip for doors and windows—best in the world, all wood, absolutely air tight, lasts a lifetime. Send postal. Herbert A. Rugg, sale agent, 8 Hall street.

A nice line of useful and fancy articles for sale at the L. C. G. sale, just the time to prepare for Christmas. Remember the dates, December 8, 9 and 10, Howland hall.

The most complete line of Christmas post cards, booklets, gift books, place cards, calendar pads, seals, etc., to be found in the city is now displayed at Kenyon & Co's Cash Bargain Store.

Hugh H. Carpenter, who has been acting as private secretary for Congressman Frank Plimley at Northfield for the past month, returned to his home in this city Saturday and resumed his work in the office of State's Attorney J. Ward Carter.

"The Red Girl and the Child" at the Dreamland theatre to-day is one of the most sensational and stirring pictures and full of action ever exhibited in Barre. This picture shows one of the most daring steps a cowboy will take to protect an Indian girl he loves. Come and see to convince yourself.

The answer to the question propounded by "Dice" in a letter to The Times to-day is that the man with a three would not be counted in either first or second place, but that the two places would go to the men who were tied originally for first, they taking position in the order of the play-off of the tie.

Sunday arrivals at the hotel Otis follow: G. J. Parker, Burlington; F. A. Walker, Hardwick; R. C. McDonald, Plattsburg, N. Y.; C. H. Harvey, Lyndonville; Albert Jennings, Bangor, Me.; G. A. Levy, Chelsea; C. W. Littlefield, New York City; G. D. P. Putnam, Worcester, Mass.; W. B. Murray, Quincy, Mass.; J. H. Murdoch, Randolph; J. L. Barnes, Albany, N. Y.; F. A. Spaulding, Plattsburg, N. Y.; George Wallace, New York City; A. D. Melver, Vershire; W. H. Holbrook, Newport.

"Mandy Hawkins" stood out like a fine etching in the merry-go-round of vaudeville. The above was the criticism of David Belasco, after witnessing the beautiful playlet, played by Mr. and Mrs. Danny Mann for seven consecutive weeks at Young's Million Dollar pier, Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Mann are billed to appear at the Pavilion in "Mandy Hawkins" for three days, commencing to-day. Considering the splendid reputation connected with the above act, the management of the Pavilion is deserving of special praise for securing such a meritorious attraction.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.

Fully 150 couples attended the dance in music hall Saturday for the benefit of John Milne. Nicol's orchestra furnished music for an excellent program of Scotch dances, and Joseph Will acted as floor director in a most efficient manner. During intermission, Robert Frazier sang a sentimental song and the large audience went wild over the character singing of little Mary McPherson of Aberdeen, Scotland, who has been playing at the Pavilion the past three days. The little lady was obliged to respond to several encores, and was only excused when it was announced that she was tired and would probably give another selection later in the evening. Altogether, it was a most enjoyable affair, and the proceeds will make Mr. Milne and his family happy for a time at least.